

Application for Board of Directors Membership

The Friends of the Lynchburg Public Library is a 501(c)(3) with a Board of Directors who raise funds and advocate for the growth and sustainability of the library beyond what falls under the city's purview. Some programs we support are Storytime & Family Programs and the Summer Reading Program.

Membership on the Board is voluntary and is limited to seventeen voting members. The Library Director also serves on the Board as a non-voting member.

Generally, membership is a two-year term, with the option to serve three consecutive terms.

Board members are expected to

- attend monthly meetings
- serve one sub-committee
- assist in planning and running fundraising events
- commit two to four hours of time per month

Thank you for considering applying to be on the Board of Directors for the Friends of the Lynchburg Public Library.
